

SHVAN WARRIORS ASSOCIATION (SHWAAN)
CERTIFICATION RULES

Certification Rules will only be reviewed and changed if needed every odd year, e.g. 2019, 2021, 2023, etc. Any proposed change(s) will be submitted in writing to the SHVAN WARRIORS ASSOCIATION (SHWAAN) Secretary at least ninety (90) days prior to the summer Executive Board meeting held at the National Workshop. The SHVAN WARRIORS ASSOCIATION (SHWAAN) Secretary will forward a copy of the proposed change(s) to the SHVAN WARRIORS ASSOCIATION (SHWAAN) Accreditation Chairperson. If the proposed change(s) are not received in writing and at least ninety (90) days prior to the executive board meeting, it (they) will not be considered.

The following test rules have been adopted by the SHVAN WARRIORS ASSOCIATION (SHWAAN). Each of the following tests is designed to determine the proficiency of the work dog team for certification in each phase of police work for canines. Whenever practical, a Military/ police work dog team graduating from an accredited training school should be tested and accredited. The successful passing and accreditation of these courses is usually acceptable testimony in court. Each test is based on a pass/fail basis. Master Trainers and handlers should review these rules in their entirety.

During any certification test, unwarranted aggression is grounds for failure.

There will be fee of Rs 100 charged for SHVAN WARRIORS ASSOCIATION (SHWAAN) certification testing. A fee may be imposed to cover expenses of travel, lodging and meals only, if necessary.

Master Trainers:

Master Trainers will act as Evaluators for these tests. Master Trainers will designate the area, phase and manner of each phase to be tested. The Master Trainer should make every effort not to interfere with or distract the dog. The Master Trainer will observe the work dog during each test for willingness, enjoyment, interest and accuracy. Handlers will be observed for ability and overall control of his/her dog. A Master Trainer may decline to certify any team at his or her discretion and will explain their reason for declining to the handler.

Certification Validity:

Upon successful completion of each test the Master Trainer will issue permanent credentials and they will be valid for one (1) year from the date of issue. The team being tested must pass each phase of each test no matter in what order or combination they are tested in. A SHVAN WARRIORS ASSOCIATION (SHWAAN) certification of a Regular member K9 team in any and all phases will ONLY BE VALID when the K9 team is being utilized by:

- (1.) The law enforcement agency they are employed by.
- (2.) A law enforcement agency they are on official assignment to by authority of their own law enforcement agency employer, (e.g. county, state task force).
- (3.) A law enforcement agency which requested and received official mutual aid from the K9 team's law enforcement agency employer.

NOTE Under NO circumstances will a SHVAN WARRIORS ASSOCIATION (SHWAAN) K9 team certification be valid when the team is being utilized for ANY and ALL NON law enforcement agency uses.

Certain Equipment Prohibited:

At no time during any of the certification tests will sticks or whips of any type be used. Collars, including pinch or electronic, may be used as long as it is proven to be properly worn and inactive if electronic, to the Master Trainer at the time of certification, except that no electronic collar will be permitted to be worn during Explosive Detection certification or training regardless whether or not it is active or inactive.

Fees:

There will be a Rs 500 fee imposed for each phase which is failed. There will be fee of Rs 100 charged for SHVAN WARRIORS ASSOCIATION (SHWAAN) certification testing. A fee may be imposed to cover expenses of travel, lodging and meals only, if necessary.

Appeal:

A work dog team that fails any of the following tests may reapply for testing at the next and most convenient date.

Test Results:

All of the following tests are recorded on a pass/fail basis. Any work dog team that fails a test and feels that they have been tested unfairly, will, at the time of the test notify the Master Trainer of his/her appeals. The handler will then file a complete report of his/her observations and the reasons they feel they were tested unfairly. The Master Trainer having been notified of the appeal will file a report of his/her observations, all testing sheets and basis for failing the team. All reports will be filed within thirty (30) days of the test at National Headquarters. Reports or copies thereof will be forwarded to an Appeals Committee. Findings of the Committee will be returned to National Headquarters and in turn forwarded to the handler and the Master Trainer. The decision of the Appeals Committee must be by a majority vote and will be final. If during the time period that a certification certificate is issued for any or all phases, the K-9 team re-tests in any or all of the same phases AND FAILS, then the initial certificate which was issued in the failed phase or phases will become NULL AND VOID. Further, a letter to this effect will be sent to the K-9 team and their department, including the recommendation that they be re-tested with thirty (30) days of this notification.
